Summary

Passionate IT Engineer with a broad skill set spanning web development, Python, GUI design, data analytics, and cyber security. Proficient in Python, C++, and Java, anchored in robust computer science fundamentals.

My project portfolio exudes innovation, featuring a sophisticated Smart Adaptive Traffic Management System, driven by Python and YOLO v8 Custom trained Model. The fusion of Python and HOG empowers my Face Recognition System, while HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and DBMS seamlessly coalesce in my Online Food Ordering Website.

An enthusiastic IT Engineer poised to amplify team's prowess, my fervor for propelling innovation renders me a dynamic asset. My abiding interest in cyber security further fuels my drive. Let's unite in scripting tales of technological triumph that redefine the limits of possibility.
